

APPENDIX 78-19 C

Resource Tables for Section 14 of this rule.

The following tables suggest examples of play equipment, types of toys, and materials that can be used with children of different age groups. All activities and equipment need to be suited to a child's age and stage of development. Toys for infants and toddlers should be sturdy, have no sharp points or edges, have no loose parts that could be swallowed or block airways, and be painted with non-toxic paint.
